THERMAL IMMERSION

Thermal immersion promotes relaxation, improves breathing, cleanses the body and enhance the benefits of spa treatments. When using the thermal bathing facilities, for the comfort of all our guests we request to reserve in advance. Thermal bathing is not recommended to pregnant guests, and all appointments are offered subject to availability. To make the best of our thermal suite please refer to the following guide.

Sauna is a method of using a thermal environment to affect the body, causing the capillaries to dilate, so it will increase blood circulation, increase perspiration, unclog pores, and repel bacteria on the skin. skin surface, making skin brighter, more beautiful. Combined with herbal essential oils, it will assist in the treatment of colds and flu, relieve muscle pain and fatigue, and relax the mind.

SENSATION SHOWERS

High-end standing shower combines many discharge modes from the top shower bowl such as waterfall bathing, rain showering or gentle misting. The warm water jets with a certain speed affect every organ in your body, helping to dispel all fatigue and stress.

WOODEN BUCKET BATH

Simulating the waterfall flowing from the top of the discharge straight to the top of the head and body, bringing a strong and refreshing feeling.

STEAM BATH

Use steam heat to heat up. The specified temperature is 45 degrees Celsius and 100% humidity. Steam bath with herbal essential oils with a refreshing body fragrance. Breathing is loosened and the lymphatic system is cleansed, relaxing the mind. Aromatherapy herbs to clear the sinuses...

SAUNA WITH ESSENTIAL OIL

Heat-generating saunas are set up with radiating stones placed on resistive bars. Pour a small amount of water mixed with essential oils over the stone to quickly increase heat and humidity. The temperature is 50 degrees Celsius, and the maximum is nearly 75 degrees Celsius. Sauna helps relax and invigorate, has a purifying effect on the body. The immune system is strengthened, stress is relieved. Note that when steaming, the body loses a lot of water and electrolytes, so not sauna regularly will mess up water and electrolytes.

ICE FOUNTAIN

Cool down by applying crushed ice all over the body to help relieve pain and cool muscles. The contrast in temperature will promote circulation and help tighten pores after each application. Ice fountain can help the central nervous system by aiding sleep, creating a sense of mental well-being.
