

AZERAI

LA RESIDENCE, HUE

Set on a two-and-a-half-hectare estate with 200 metres of frontage along the fabled Perfume River, Azerai La Residence, Hue offers 122 stylish rooms and suites, many with river views. At its heart stands a 1930s colonial mansion, once home to the French Resident Supérieure. Its distinctive façade, horizontal lines, and subtle nautical flourishes are hallmarks of the Streamline Moderne school of Art Deco architecture. Its two new wings, completed in 2005, complement the mansion with contemporary design that echoes Art Deco aesthetics, while embracing tropical gardens, quiet courtyards, and a salt-water swimming pool. The resort blends heritage charm with modern luxury, offering a riverside retreat for discerning travelers seeking culture, comfort, and timeless sophistication.
